Because our core business is building crates, our supply of stock corrugated products is rather limited. However, we often receive box drawings from our customers that we special order. If you would like us to quote on your custom box needs, please keep the following in mind:

- The prices of custom corrugated boxes are greatly influenced by the quantities ordered. The larger the quantity, the less it will cost per piece. If space is a concern, large quantities can be purchased and we will store them for you – releasing quantities to you as you need them.

- Box drawings can be faxed or emailed to us. Please include the following information on your drawing:
  - Your name and contact information
  - All dimensions
  - Wall Density: Single Wall (SW), Double Wall (DW), Triple Wall (TW)
